

FALL INTERNSHIP:

ORGANIZING 2.0 (NYC, LABOR, PROGRESSIVE, COMMUNICATIONS, SOCIAL MEDIA)

Do you support social justice, equality, and other progressive values? Do your friends rely on you for political news and current events? Do you regularly use social media, blogs, and your smartphone to make your voice heard?

Organizing 2.0 is a New York-based organization committed to building power for workers and community organizing groups. We've trained over 2000 people in the last three years to harness online tools for organizing – and we want you to join us.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

Our interns will be helping to organize training events, our annual organizing training conference, and using our tools in support of local labor struggles that need us. We're a lean organization run by volunteers, which means you'll have plenty of serious responsibilities, if you can handle them. No fetching coffee or photocopying in our office!

The ideal candidate is comfortable with technology, activism and progressive politics. Our ideal candidate wants to make a difference – strengthening labor groups and unions, helping marginalized people organizing from below and progressive political groups fighting for the 99%.

What You Will Learn:

- How to plan and manage training events from A to Z
- Organizing software including Salsa and NationBuilder, web publishing and social media tools
- The makeup of New York's and America's progressive infrastructure
- The basics of online marketing as applied towards social good
- Nonprofit management skills

What We Require:

- Knowledge of current events and comfort with social media
- A passion for progressive political change
- Highly organized, with an ability to prioritize time-sensitive assignments
- Fearlessness – not afraid to be a bold and outside the box thinker
- Honesty and integrity in fulfilling your commitments

We strongly encourage applicants of diverse backgrounds to apply (PoC, LGBT, Differently Abled, or Undocumented.)

This is a rolling admission – we accept new interns during August and September.

- Minimum commitment is 15 hours/week, preference for 20-40
- 12 week minimum
- Stipends of $500-$1000 a month available for well-qualified applicants
- Suitable for school credit in a variety of majors
- We are located near Union Square in a co-working facility.

To apply, please visit organizing20.org/interns. No phone calls or emails please.
